

Name change of investment fund

With effect from 21st February 2008, ABN AMRO Funds - Global Emerging Markets Bond Fund (USD) Class “A” (ABEMU) will be renamed to ABN AMRO Funds - Global Emerging Markets Bond Fund Class “A” (ABEMU). This name change is due to the rename of its underlying fund as a result of a merger between this underlying fund with ABN AMRO Funds - Global Emerging Markets Bond Fund (EURO) to achieve economy of scale.

It is important to note that the investment objective, investment manager and the fee structure of the underlying fund of the investment fund remain unchanged after the merger.

Minor issue relating to some other investment funds

Please note that some minor issues relating to underlying funds managed by First State Investments have been released. The changes have no impact to the investment objective and strategy and fund charges of the investment funds in the “Investment Choice” brochure.

For details, please visit our website at http://www.massmutualasia.com/en/main/invest/pc_fund_search/invest_notice_of_changes.html or refer to the relevant prospectuses and authorized documents of the underlying fund(s) of the above investment fund(s), which are made available by MassMutual Asia Ltd.

If you invest in the above investment fund(s) under your insurance policy and if for any reason you wish to change to other investment fund(s), you can switch your investment fund(s) to other available investment fund(s) provided by your policy. Currently, no fund switching charge applies to any of the investment funds and most of the investment funds do not have a bid-offer spread during fund switching. For details, please refer to “Investment Choice” brochure.
